89	11	We continue our objection.	Sustained.
91	5	Mr. Connors: Objection as to relevancy. Mr. Leventhal: If you want to know why it's relevant, it's in the cooperation deals that he's done, so it's relevant.	Sustained.

Objection made during re-direct examination:

106	17	Mr. Leventhal: I'm going to object as leading. Mr. Connors: As to which question? Mr. Leventhal: Well, all of them. You're kind of leading him to it.	Court reserves ruling.

The government has requested that the following objections and accompanying testimony be omitted from the videotaped deposition to be shown to the jury. The Court GRANTS the government's request to edit and excise the following objections from the evidence shown to the jury.

20	11-14	Mr. Leventhal: Objection; leading.
65	2-10	Mr. Leventhal: At this time I'm going to move to strike all of the witness' testimony at this point because of the medication that he's on and the fact that he cannot remember anything. So I'm just going to move to strike everything that he's had to say so far. And I will just put that on the record. Mr. Connors: We will disagree and it's noted.
77-78	21-24; 1-8	Mr. Connors: Objection. He doesn't know what Quan knew. Mr. Leventhal: I'm sorry? Mr. Connors: He doesn't know what Quan knew. Mr. Leventhal: Okay. That's fine. We can disagree but I will go through it with him.
102	6	Mr. Connors: Objection. This is hearsay again.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 12 day of August, 2016.

Gloria M. Navarro, Chief Judge
United States District Court
